O Congresso pelo telegrapho

Rio, 11

O sr. Coelho Rodrigues fez minuciosa análise da Constituição do Rio-Grande, demonstrando estar em completa antithese com a federal. Lembra que para manter tal Constituição o governo federal sofre as consequências da actual. Não compreende que o actual presidente da Republica se julgue obrigado a manter a politica do seu antecessor, que só lhe passou o poder por ter sido eleito. Aponta os direitos profereidos e que demonstram as tentativas do marechal para conservar o poder. Acrescenta que o sr. Floriano teve vez tentou a pacificação do Rio-Grande, encarregando dessa missão em 1891, o coronel Arthur Osório, o senador Cunha Junior.

Foi depois votada a proposta da Câmara approvando os actos do governo durante o estado de sitio. Só votaram contra os srs. Ladeira, Francisco Machado, Ottonio, Aquilino, Domingos Vicente, Corcova Araújo, João Neiva, Almeida Barreto, Catunda e João Barbalho, os que votaram a favor apresentaram declaração de voto, assignada por 23 senadores, não aceitando nem os considerandos nem a restrição contida no parecer da Comissão.

De modo que a Comissão foi fundada por suas indecisões; não se animou a negar a approvação a todos os actos e julgou poder deixar porta aberta, fazendo considerandos discordantes das conclusões. Os outros, porém, são mais francos e declaram positivamente como só a isso sem engulir o anzol.
