The musical score is for a piece in 3/4 time, featuring a vocal line (Canto) and a piano accompaniment (Fl. I and Fl. II). The score is divided into four systems. The first system shows the Canto line and the first two staves of the piano accompaniment. The second system continues the piano accompaniment. The third system continues the piano accompaniment. The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment. Dynamics include f, pp, ff, p, and f. There are also triplets and slurs throughout the piano part.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line with a p dynamic marking. The middle and bottom staves are a piano accompaniment. The middle staff begins with a f dynamic marking. The system concludes with a cresc. marking in the bottom staff.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melody. The middle and bottom staves are the piano accompaniment. The system includes dim. markings in the middle and bottom staves, and a cresc. marking in the bottom staff.

Third system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melody, ending with a pp marking. The middle and bottom staves are the piano accompaniment. The system includes dim. markings in the middle and bottom staves, a tempo instruction Un peu plus lent. in the middle staff, and ppp markings in the middle and bottom staves.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melody. The middle and bottom staves are the piano accompaniment. The system includes a cresc. marking in the middle staff, and tempo instructions ralentissez davantage in the middle staff and Pressez le mouvement. in the bottom staff.

The first system of the musical score consists of two systems of staves. The first system has a single treble staff with a melodic line featuring eighth and sixteenth notes, and a grand staff (treble and bass) with a complex accompaniment of sixteenth-note chords and triplets. The second system continues the melodic line with a triplet and ends with a double bar line and a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#).

Allegretto moderato.

The second system of the musical score consists of two systems of staves. The first system has a single treble staff with a melodic line and a grand staff with a piano accompaniment. The word con brio is written below the first measure of the piano part. The second system continues the melodic line with accents and the piano accompaniment with sixteenth-note patterns.
