Handwritten musical score for piano, page 5. The score is written on six systems of three staves each. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The music features complex chordal textures and melodic lines. Handwritten annotations include ff un po sost. and + Bombarda 16'.

The image displays a page of handwritten musical notation, likely a score for a piano piece. The page is numbered '6' in the top left corner. It contains six systems of musical staves, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a single bass staff. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system shows a complex melodic line in the treble staff and a more rhythmic bass line. The second system continues the melodic development. The third system features a prominent bass line with a 'V' marking. The fourth system includes the instruction 'con fuoco' (with fire) and a '4' marking. The fifth system shows a continuation of the melodic and rhythmic patterns. The sixth system concludes the page with a final melodic phrase. The handwriting is clear and professional, typical of a composer's manuscript.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The middle and bottom staves are in bass clef with the same key signature. The music features complex rhythmic patterns with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. A section of the bottom staff is marked "via Bombarda".

Second system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps. The middle and bottom staves are in bass clef with the same key signature. The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns, including beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes.

Third system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps. The middle and bottom staves are in bass clef with the same key signature. The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns, including beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps. The middle and bottom staves are in bass clef with the same key signature. The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns, including beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes.

Fifth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps. The middle and bottom staves are in bass clef with the same key signature. The music continues with complex rhythmic patterns, including beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The system concludes with the instruction "dim." (diminuendo) and "rimettendosi a poco" (returning to the original tempo).
